THE REV. BRIAN BALLARD, CAROL CHERRY,
RENEE MALNAK, KIKI MCKENDRICK

Sundays, April 19, 26, May 3, 10
Main Line Adult Day Center Living Room

This four-week series continues the themes discussed at the Caring Ministries March 14 Symposium, Living Well, Planning Well, Dying Well. Taking the time to ensure all items are finalized related to your will, estate, and future care, is daunting and often elicits theological and spiritual questions. This class will explore those questions and the emotional and spiritual dimensions to organizing your end-of-life affairs. All are welcome, even if you did not attend the March symposium.

EVERY FAMILY IS A STORY

The Rev. Debra Sutton, Middleton Center Counselor and Trauma Specialist, leads us through a Family Systems approach to Serene Jones' memoir, Call It Grace. BMPC Welcomes

Rev. Dr. Serene Jones

as our 2020 David and Ruth Watermulder
Theologian-in-Residence

Each year, in honor of the leadership of David and Ruth Watermulder, our Adult Education Committee invites a scholar of excellence to share their work and passion with our greater community. This year, we are especially delighted to welcome the Rev. Dr. Serene Jones, president of Union Theological Seminary, to be with us the weekend of January 25-26, 2020.

Dr. Jones holds a master of divinity degree from Yale Divinity School as well as a Ph.D. in theology from Yale University. She is an ordained minister in both the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and the United Church of Christ. She taught at Yale University for 17 years before her appointment to Union.

Dr. Jones is the 16th president of the historic Union Theological Seminary in the City of New York. The first woman to head the 179-year-old interdenominational seminary, she occupies the Johnston Family Chair for Religion and Democracy and has formed Union's Institute for Women, Religion and Globalization as well as the Institute for Art, Religion and Social Justice.

Her most recent book, Call it Grace: Finding Meaning in a Fractured World, is a compelling memoir of her life growing up in Oklahoma, her theological journey through tradition, family and trauma, and a window into the future of theological institutions for the 21st century.

We invite you to join us for this weekend with Serene Jones and engage in fresh and relevant conversation about what it means to be present and active people of faith in our world today. This year's programs will include a Saturday morning breakfast and lecture that will be part of our celebrations of the 20th anniversary of the Middleton Center. Dr. Jones will preach on Sunday morning and give her second lecture after worship.

SUNDAY CLASSES

11:15 A.M.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 2 INTRODUCTION TO ISLAMIC ART

Chapel

Patricia Danzon, Middleton Center Spiritual Director, leads us through an introduction to Islamic art which is radically different from Christian art. Whereas the Church has often used art as a visual reminder of Bible stories, Islamic art for religious contexts bans the representation of humans/animals, and simply seeks to create a sense of the infinite nature of Allah.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 9 COUNTERING SLANDER: FETHULLAH GULEN'S LIFE BEYOND PROPAGANDA

Chapel

The Turkish preacher Fethullah Gulen, who has lived in a retreat center in the Poconos since 1999, is one of the most influential spiritual leaders of the contemporary world. He has inspired a global movement known as "Hizmet" (service), which is dedicated to education, social enterprise, and inter-religious dialogue. Gulen is also enemy number one of the current regime in the Republic of Turkey, which has labeled him a "terrorist." Dr. Jon Pahl is a faculty member at United Lutheran Seminary and has recently published the first critical biography of this controversial figure: Fethullah Gulen: A Life of Hizmet--Why a Muslim Scholar in Pennsylvania Matters to the World.

Asheq Fazlullah

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 16 THE BASICS OF THE ISLAMIC FAITH

Chapel

We will be joined this morning by Asheq Fazlullah, Islamic Chaplain at Villanova University and leader of interfaith initiatives in Greater Philadelphia. Asheq will introduce us to the very basics of Islam as we seek to better understand our neighbors and connections among the world's religions.

SUNDAY CLASSES

11:15 A.M.

SUNDAY, MARCH 1

THE PASTORAL CARE OF JOHN CALVIN

Chapel

Before he was a theologian or reformer, John Calvin was first and foremost a pastor. The Rev. Brian Ballard will lead us through an exploration of some of Calvin's letters and sermons to catch a glimpse of Calvin as a pastoral caregiver to those entrusted to him by God. In so doing, we will see Calvin's heart for pastoral ministry and how his pastoral care shaped his theology.

SUNDAY, MARCH 8

THE REV. DEANNA HOLLAS

Coordinator of Gun Violence Prevention Ministries of the Presbyterian Peace Fellowship, Chapel

Rev. Hollas is the first pastor in the United States to be ordained specifically to the work of Gun Violence Prevention. She will share with us the work that Presbyterians are doing around the country on this issue and help us consider the work that our congregation may be called to on this issue.

SUNDAY, MARCH 15

MICHELE PISTONE

Professor of Law and Director, Clinic for Asylum, Refugee and Emigrant Services, Villanova University, Chapel

Join us for a conversation on the experiences of refugees, immigrants and asylum seekers in our local communities. Dr. Pistone also will share the good work that Villanova is doing in their clinic and will share opportunities for people to be engaged on this issue on a personal level, even without a law degree.

SUNDAY, APRIL 19 THE ISRAELI- PALESTINIAN CONFLICT: IT'S COMPLICATED!

FRAMING AN INTRACTABLE DEBATE

Chapel

Presbyterians have been actively engaged in mission in the Middle East for over 150 years. The Rev. Rebecca Kirkpatrick will take us through the stories of how American Christian denominations divided up the Holy Lands for mission work and also will give a brief summary of the most recent statements the Presbyterian Church USA has made on the Israel-Palestinian Conflict.

ONE BOOK ONE CHURCH

Each year the Adult Education Committee recommends a book for our entire congregation to read together, allowing us to be in conversation on contemporary topics as a whole community. This year's book has been chosen as a part of our classes on Israel and Palestine and in conjunction with the Community Forum programs.

LETTERS TO MY PALESTINIAN NEIGHBOR, BY YOSI KLEIN HALEVI

Books available from the
BMPC Book Center for $5.00

Lyrical and evocative, Letters to My Palestinian Neighbor is one Israeli's powerful attempt to reach beyond the wall that separates Israelis and Palestinians. In a series of letters, Yossi Klein Halevi endeavors to untangle the ideological and emotional knot that has defined the Israeli-Palestinian conflict for nearly a century. Using history and personal experience as his guides, he unravels the complex strands of faith, pride, anger, and anguish he feels as a Jew living in Israel.

Speaking to all concerned global citizens, this provocative collection of letters from each side of the conflict models the kind of passionate, respectful discourse that is sorely missing in the world today, and helps us understand the painful choices confronting Israelis and Palestinians that will ultimately determine the fate of the region.

MONDAY, APRIL 27 7:00 P.M., SANCTUARY YOSSI KLEIN HALEVI

Community Forum Distinguished Speaker Series

Yossi Klein Halevi is a senior fellow at the Shalom Hartman Institute in Jerusalem. Together with Imam Abdullah Antepli of Duke University, he co-directs the Institute's Muslim Leadership Initiative, which teaches emerging young Muslim American leaders about Judaism, Jewish identity and Israel.

Halevi's 2013 book, Like Dreamers, won the Jewish Book Council's Everett Book of the Year Award. His latest book, Letters to My Palestinian Neighbor, is a New York Times bestseller. He writes for leading op-ed pages in the US, including the Times and the Wall Street Journal, and is a former contributing editor to the New Republic.
